CHRISTMAS GIFTS TO MEMBERS ROTARY CLUBSALVATION ARMY MAKES FINAL PLEA FOR AID

Christmas Baskets Will be Distributed Saturday to Poor Families of The City.

The familiar Salvation Army kettle which has been seen on the streets for the past several days will be removed tonight to appear no more until next Christmas season.

For days past devoted members of the Salvation Army have "kept the kettle ringing" in the interest of the destitute of the city, and in an endeavor to bring home to them a little of the spirit of the season.

Captain Mofford reports that receipts this season have been unusually light, and that much more is needed if the Army is to carry out its comprehensive plan for relief of the poor. In view of the fact that this is the last day on which donations can be made for this purpose, a special request has been made for liberal gifts from the public today.

The work of the Salvation Army in this city is familiar to everybody. Last year they distribute scores of Christmas dinner baskets to those who would have had no Christmas otherwise, and it is their desire to repeat this work again this season.

The Boy Scouts will assist the Salvation Army in the filling of baskets.
